GOLD SPONSORS

SILVER SPONSOR

CREW Maryland Suburban joins with the Association for Preservation Technology (APT) DC Chapter for an evening of networking and conversation about historic preservation.

The event will include a presentation by Clare Lise Kelly, the Architectural History Specialist at the Montgomery County Planning Department, M-NCPPC, who will be discussing her recent book Montgomery Modern: Modern Architecture in Montgomery County, Maryland, 1930-1979.

Rick Brown, owner and developer of the Supper Club, will provide the evening's introduction. Nakita Reed and Ward Bucher of Encore Sustainable Design, LLC will close out the evening with breakout discussions of the building's renovation and key themes in historic preservation.

Refreshments will include heavy appetizers and a cash bar.
