Join CREW Maryland Suburban and CREWBaltimore for a joint Construction Tour & Happy Hour of Little Patuxent Square.

Located in the epicenter of Downtown Columbia, Maryland, Little Patuxent Square will feature 130,000 SF of Class A office space, 10,000 SF of retail, 5 1/2 levels of below-grade parking, a 6,000 SF open-air courtyard, and 160 luxury apartment residences, complete with a rooftop pool.

This exciting mixed-use development will set the new standard for Class A office space in Columbia. Its façade is composed of an elaborate curtain wall system accented by metal wall panels and precast concrete. Designed to meet LEED Gold criteria, Little Patuxent Square will also become a benchmark for sustainable construction in Columbia.

Lakehouse, the residences at Little Patuxent Square, will rise 12 floors to overlook downtown and Lake Kittamaqundi. Featuring ample common spaces, a full suite of amenities and curated services and gorgeous interiors, its design is reflective of its natural surroundings. The stylish exterior, featuring expansive windows and a green roof, complete the story of luxury blended with nature. Lakehouse will offer comfort, style and the convenience of urban living.
